The Government of India (GOI) is negotiating with the Chinese Communist Government for the establishment of airline communications between the two countries.*

25X1A * [REDACTED] Comment. If the negotiations are successful, Bharat Airways may get a contract from the GOI, and the China National Aviation Corporation (CNAC) may get a contract from the Chinese Communist Government.

25X1A [REDACTED] Comment. Although much of the CNAC defected to the Communists in November 1949 the Chinese Communist Government has not so far put any of the corporation's facilities into operation.
